KILLED BY INDIANS.

Party of Americans Murdered in the Gulf of California.

THEY VISITED TIBURON ISLAND.

Never Heard From Afterward and Their Fate Will Probably Never Be Known. Something About the Remarkable Tribe of Indians That Inhabit That Island. Report Made to the State Department.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—United States Consul Hugh Long, at Nogales, Mex., has furnished the state department particulars of the supposed murder of a party of Americans, headed by Captain Porter, by the Seri Indians on Tiburon island, in the Gulf of California. According to the statement made to the Mexican custom officials by Martin Mendez, master of the sloop "Otila," Captain Porter sailed from San Diego, Cal., with his companions in a small boat to engage in collecting shells. They left the port of Guaymas Aug. 9, under special permission from the Mexican government to explore the shores and islands of the gulf.

The consul says the island of Tiburon is one of the largest and most picturesque in the Gulf of California, and is peopled with a most remarkable tribe of Indians, who are noted for their large size and extraordinary athletics on land and water. Those who have witnessed their aquatic sports at a respectful distance declare that many of them can actually walk, or rather run, upon the water with no other assistance than broad rawhide shoes. They are, writes the consul, expert fishermen and hunters, having rigid ideas as to the maintenance of game preserves on the island and limiting the killing of game under severe penalties.

They destroy all children in infancy that are malformed or appear to lack intelligence. In this way the standard of physical and mental conditions in both sexes is kept very high. It is currently believed that at one time the native women were exterminated to make room for a whiter and superior race of women. The nucleus of this race of higher women was formed from captives made at various times extending over a series of years on land and water. They have no schools, but each home has a system of physical training.

The natives guard their shores day and night and no man is allowed to penetrate the island even if he should make a landing. It is said that no epidemics have ever prevailed on the island and disease is scarcely known among this extraordinary people, so that the men and women are magnificent in their physical endowment.

No man or woman is allowed to live beyond the age of 70 years, no matter how well preserved in body and mind. By careful selection a large percentage of the women have a transparent, peachy complexion, and deep auburn hair.

NOVEL SMUGGLING.

House Erected on the Mexican Border, With Doors Opening in Each Country.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—A curious case of smuggling on the Mexican border line has been discovered recently by the government officials at Nogales, A. T., and equally curious action has been taken to suppress it.

On May 6 last land about Nogales was declared subject to entry and among those who took advantage of the right was a man who made a town site selection directly on the international border line and immediately erected a large house thereon with doors on both sides. By this means, according to official reports, the laws were evaded by backing up teams laden with Mexican goods to the rear door of the house, which did not require crossing the line, and the goods were then taken out of the door on the American side and carried away.

The case was reported by the collector of customs and he asked that no town site be allowed unless there was a street set apart along the border to prevent the evasion. The general land office has now acted on this proposition and the president has made a reservation of a strip of land, 60 feet wide and two miles long at Nogales, which it is hoped will prevent such practices as that referred to secure to the government its customs dues. The necessary surveys for the purpose are now being made.

Prominent Lawyer Suicides.

SNOW HILL, Md., Nov. 17.—William Sydney Wilson, a prominent lawyer and son of the late United States Senator Wilson, committed suicide at his home in Snow Hill yesterday afternoon by shooting himself with a revolver. For some time he had been in bad health, and is supposed to have taken his life while suffering under temporary aberration of mind. His widow was a Miss Ewing of St. Louis.

Fire in Detroit.

DETROIT, Nov. 17.—Fire broke out after midnight in the factory of Boydell Brothers' White Lead and Color company, corner Fort and Baubien streets, and entirely destroyed the building and contents. The value of the building is given at $15,000 and the stock and machinery $35,000, fully insured.

Killed in a Mine.

WELLSTON, O., Nov. 17.—Arthur Lindover, 70, was instantly killed and his 18-year-old son seriously injured at Wellston mine No. 2, by the falling of a part of the excavations.

AN ANCIENT GRANT.

Seven Million Acres of Land Claimed by Two Ohio Men.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—An immense claim embracing 7,000,000 acres of land in the northwest and including the cities of Minneapolis and St. Paul was brought before Commissioner Hermann of the general land office yesterday and the assistance of the government in securing official data was called for.

The claimants are O. B. Holloway of Holland, O., and A. U. Gunn of Maumee, O. They are now making an examination of the general land office records with a view to securing copies of certified papers, which they assert will establish their title to the lands claimed by them. Their ancestor, through whom they claim title, was Jonathan Carver, an Englishman, a well known explorer in the last century.

Carver lived among the Indians of the northwest mostly in what is now Minnesota and Wisconsin and for a time he was adopted by some of the tribes, including the Nawadassias, who made him chief and for valuable services rendered, it is claimed by the heirs, presented the vast tract. They assert that this tribal act was ratified both by King George the III, and the continental congress.

Gunn claims he is the great grandson of Carver, and Holloway's wife is the great granddaughter. A representative of the heirs had a long interview with the land commissioner, Hermann, today, in which their contentions were explained. The department will render whatever assistance is possible in the way of securing information.

SALOONKEEPERS FIGHT.

One of Them Now Dead and the Other Locked Up in Jail.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 17.—Merritt Martin, a saloonkeeper and agent for the Chattanooga Brewing company, and J. J. Ryan, also a saloonkeeper, had a terrible fight last night in the latter's place of business on Main street, as the results of which Ryan is dead and Martin is locked up, charged with murder. The men had been good friends until recently, when they had a dispute over an account owed the Chattanooga Brewing company by Ryan. Martin declared they must have a settlement at once and entered Ryan's place and requested the same.

After some conversation the men began fighting with their fists. Bystanders interfered and separated them. While Martin was being held away from Ryan, the latter, reaching over the head of the peacekeepers holding Martin, hit him a blow in the face, whereupon the latter drew his pistol and began shooting. The friends became panic-stricken and fled from the room, leaving the fighters together. Martin's third shot struck Ryan in the left arm and a fourth entered the abdomen. Martin fled from the place and was arrested. Ryan died while being carried to the hospital. Ryan was a single man aged about 35.

NO INDICTMENT FOUND.

A Very Unusual Thing For a Grand Jury To Do.

NEWPORT, Ky., Nov. 17.—The Campbell county grand jury in session here did a very unusual thing yesterday. The case of Charles W. Shotwell, aged 17 years, was heard for house breaking. The boy had been in jail three months. He was in rags and almost bare footed when brought before the grand jury.

He said his parents died years ago and he was without home or friends. Driven to desperation he joined an older person in attempting to break into a house. The other party escaped. Shotwell concealed nothing and his story was corroborated. The jury returned no indictment, but made up a purse for him and also procured new clothing and started the lad out with promises of leading a better life.

Two Brothers Charged With Murder.

MEMPHIS, Nov. 17.—J. W. and Jasper Starks, brothers, who reside near Collierville, this county, are confined in the county jail charged with the murder of a half-witted negro boy named Jerry Mebane. The body of Mebane was found at the bottom of a small stream weighted down with iron and with the feet and hands shackled, with a bullet hole through his head. The crime, it is said, was committed because Mebane shot and killed a colt belonging to the Starks. The Starks brothers have heretofore borne good reputations and deny the charge.

Searching For a Murderer.

WILLIAMSBURG, Ky., Nov. 17.—The finding of the body of Lincoln Wilson in a deep hollow covered with leaves brought to light a theory that Jack Lovitt, a prosperous farmer, was his assailant. The trouble was over a girl whom Wilson married. The back of Wilson's head was crushed in from a blow of the blunt end of an ax and split open from a blow from the sharp end. A search has begun for Lovitt.

Orphaned by Their Sire.

CUSHING, Ia., Nov. 17.—L. D. Spickler, a farmer, has shot and killed his wife and blown out his own brains. The wife was shot in the breast and did not die for several hours. Four children are made orphans by the tragedy. They were the children of the woman by a former husband. Spickler separated from his wife over a year ago on account of family troubles.

Shot Himself in Bed.

LIGONIER, Ind., Nov. 17.—James McDole, living near this city, was found dead in his bed. He committed suicide by shooting himself.

A VAST GRAVEYARD.

THOUSANDS ARE DYING DAILY.

Three-Fourths of the Four Hundred Thousand Helpless Women, Children and Noncombatants Effected by Weyler's Policy Are Dead The Steamer Dauntless Again Causing Trouble.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—A special to The World from Havana says: It appears that nearly 75 per cent of the 400,000 helpless women, children and non-combatants in Cuba effected by former Captain General Weyler's policy are dead. Despite the orders issued by General Blanco to feed the starving, the daily mortality of the remaining reconcentrados is frightful. The rabid Spaniards, who believe that only by extermination of the race this Cuban war can be won, openly challenge the good faith of General Blanco's statements as to his intention to feed and find work for those whom General Weyler has not killed. They jubilantly claim that the new captain general is enforcing the barbarous "concentration" of the country exactly as his predecessor did. The local press no longer prints the news from the small towns. In one of the last articles upon the hunger situation it was called "one of the most awful spectacles ever presented to humanity."

General Blanco has entered upon an almost hopeless task. The present Cuban situation is such that it seems impossible to effect by reforms and snailly what the greatest army in the history of the colonial wars has failed to accomplish. Spain's present policy is announced to be one of combined conciliation and force. It appears to be, as some Spanish journals have called it, a "suicidal policy." The peculiar and not generally understood conditions of the Cuban struggle now make any conciliatory move a direct play into the hands of the insurgents. This is particularly true of the proclamation of Nov. 10, which commands all military and civil authorities to aid in protecting the sugar properties in grinding cane. General Blanco's first important act, if carried out it will be a virtual abandonment of the field to the insurgents. It will yield them much money and food and will cause the further loss of valuable property. If not put into effect it will incur the suspicion of being a false promise, made to promote the idea of Cuba's pacification and especially to influence the United States congress.

To adequately protect the sugar estates likely to operate, General Blanco will have to practically close the operations against the insurgents. He has not enough men to do both things. Only about 20 per cent of the sugar plantations of Cuba that operated two years ago have machinery modern enough or in good enough condition to warrant grinding at the present price of sugar. It is not likely that any of the uninjured plantations could run at a profit this year, however well protected, but they will probably cut as much cane as possible to prevent the ground going from bad to worse.

Notwithstanding sensational reports of the total destruction of sugar properties, only a very small percentage of the modern sugar grinding plants have been destroyed by either Cubans or Spaniards. The long printed list of burned plantations is made up mostly of useless plants abandoned several years ago when beet sugar forced the construction of larger "central" factories. These are almost untouched, and did a republic of Cuba wish to borrow money for a war indemnity to Spain she would not have much difficulty in showing a sufficient and present earning power to retire the debt in a few years.

SLIPPERY DAUNTLESS.

The Little Filibustering Steamer Giving the Government More Trouble.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—A special to The Tribune from Washington says: The filibustering steamer Dauntless is again causing serious concern to naval authorities. A telegram to the navy department from Key West, where the cruiser Montgomery and the gunboat Annapolis are supposed to be on the watch, announce the sudden arrival of the Dauntless at that port, although on Saturday the commanding officer of the Vesuvius, who was watching her at Jacksonville, reported her in dock there, being cleaned and painted and generally placed in condition for another expedition.

He thought she would be ready in another week and wondered what steps he would take to prevent her departure if she had men and arms aboard and the department has scarcely informed him that he must follow her out to sea and make every effort to prevent her reaching Cuba, when the news came that she had slipped into Key West, violating the quarantine regulations by leaving Jacksonville without notice and completely disconcerting the naval authorities, who are afraid she may get away from her present berth as readily as from her last, without anyone being the wiser.

If the men and ammunition are now aboard the Dauntless, she is in a fine way to reach Cuba, for all the navy can do to prevent it, since her speed makes it difficult for any of our smaller warships to catch her in the day time and she can easily elude them at night. The only sure method for preventing her from reaching Cuba, in the opinion of naval officers here, is to destroy her.

THOUSANDS OF NATIVES SLAIN.

The Town of Kong, in South Africa, Destroyed by Chief Samory.

PARIS, Nov. 17.—A special dispatch to The Journal brings serious news from the Niger region, West Africa. In order to punish the inhabitants of the town of Kong, capital of the Kingdom of Kong, in the Mandingo region of Upper Guinea, for their refusal to supply his troops with provisions, Chief Samory has razed the town and massacred several thousand natives.

For several weeks the French newspapers have been calling upon the government to send a punitive expedition against Chief Samory, who, on Aug. 20 last surprised and routed a French detachment of native troops sent to occupy territory which he had offered to evacuate. Two of the French officers and 44 men were killed.

Kong is a rich and fertile dependency of the French ivory coast. If the report published by the Paris Journal is confirmed, the French government will have no alternative to such a punitive expedition as the French press has been urging it to undertake.

Samory, who is otherwise known as Samadu, and who was formerly known as the "West African Mushi," is a Tipu Tib on a large scale, a wholesale slave hunter. He first came into contact with the French in 1882, but in the two years' war which followed he was repeatedly defeated.

In the latter part of 1884 he carried his slave raids far to the south into Sulinamia, capturing and destroying Palada, the capital of Sulinamia, and the great emporium for the trans-Niger trade. A vast track of country was devastated; thousands of natives were slain; thousands more were sold into slavery, and the country was so depopulated that trade came to a standstill and the colony of Sierra Leone was reduced to the verge of bankruptcy.

These conquests brought Samory a fresh accession of strength; and in 1885 he again commenced operations against the French provinces on the north. Two severe defeats, however, brought him to terms, and in February, 1887, he signed a treaty of peace with the French, in which he recognized that the river Niger was the boundary between his territory and that of the French.

FEVER STILL LINGERS.

Eleven New Cases and Two Deaths Occur in New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 17.—There were 11 new cases and two deaths yesterday from yellow fever. The deaths were Michael Ross and Mrs. Ben L. Bear. The weather has turned cold, a strong wind is blowing, frost is promised for the next day or two and the outlook is deemed very bright.

Among the new cases are Rev. D. G. Whiting Hill, pastor of the Coliseum Baptist church, and R. E. Craig, president of the water works company. Nearly a dozen ministers have been afflicted since the fever started, but Dr. D. L. Purser was the only one whose case resulted fatally. All the others are long since convalescent.

Four New Cases at Mobile.

MOBILE, Nov. 17.—Four new cases of yellow fever were reported here, as follows: Charles M. Kibborn, Harry Howard, Albert Morse, Mrs. Mattie Curry. There were no deaths. Four new cases are reported at Thistler.

THE LAMP WAS UPSET.

An Old Lady and Her Nephew Burned to Death.

PLATTSBURG, N. Y., Nov. 17.—Mrs. Terrill and her nephew, Edward Mason, were burned to death on a farm a few miles from Peru, this county, last night. Mrs. Terrill, who was 70 years old, started to her room to retire at about 9 o'clock, carrying a kerosene lamp. In some unexplained way the lamp was upset. The burning oil fell on her clothing enveloping her in flames.

Her nephew, who was 50 years old, tried to help her, and in his endeavors his own clothing took fire. When he had succeeded in putting out the flames Mrs. Terrill was unconscious. She died soon after the arrival of neighbors. Mason was so horribly burned that he died a few hours later.

Death of a Well Known Actor.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—William Elwood, a well known actor, who had been a leading man in several prominent companies, died yesterday of heart failure at his apartments in the Hotel Cadillac, aged 35 years. Mr. Elwood, whose real name is H. E. Haffenagle, was born in Detroit, and had been on the stage 12 years. He was for several years Stuart Robson's leading man, appearing with him in "The Henrietta," "A Comedy of Errors," "Is Marriage a Failure?" and other plays. He closed last season a three years' engagement with Fanny Davenport.

Instantly Killed by Electricity.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 17.—Levi L. Potter, colored, aged 25 years, was instantly killed last night by a shock from an electric light wire. Potter was standing on an iron grating in front of a South street store. He carried over his shoulder an umbrella with an iron rod, one of which he held in his hand. The other end touched the wire where it was exposed and Potter fell dead.

PINEVILLE, Ky., Nov. 17.—Fire last night destroyed half a million feet of lumber belonging to the Thompson Lumber company in the yards at this place. Three hundred thousand staves belonging to J. W. Clark and walnut logs valued at $2,000 belonging to R. J. Lewis, also two boxcars. Lumber loss fully covered by insurance; other losses not insured.

CLARK LAW INVALID

So Declared by the Supreme Court of Ohio.

NO PREFERENCES FOR SOLDIERS.

They Will Have to Take Their Chances on an Equality With Other Applicants For County or Municipality Positions Famous War Scout Dead—Body Found in the River—Other Ohio News.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 17.—The supreme court yesterday held the Clark law of April 3, 1896, invalid. This law provided that in appointing public officers in a county or municipality, preference must be given to regularly discharged Union soldiers.

It is known as the Clark law, and Senator Clark of Cleveland was the author.

The case in which the decision was given was from Wooster—the state ex rel, Edward Keyser vs. P. S. Blosser et al., commissioners of Wayne county. Keyser was a candidate for appointment as superintendent of the courthouse and the commissioners appointed another, not an old soldier, over him. The commissioners answered and Keyser demurred to answer, but the court sustained it as a demurrer to his petition, dismissing the petition at Keyser's costs.

War Scout Dead.

FREMONT, O., Nov. 17.—George Harrison, one of Fremont's oldest citizens, died Monday, aged 71 years. For the past 21 years Mr. Harrison has been an invalid, and unable to leave his house except in an invalid chair. His illness was caused by disease contracted while serving as a scout for the Union forces, in the late war. Some years ago the state department of the U. S. granted a special dispensation, and Rawson post proceeded to Mr. Harrison's house, where he was mustered in as a member. He was buried yesterday, with military honors.

New Railroad Projected.

FINDLAY, O., Nov. 17.—The general offices of the Findlay, Fort Wayne and Western railroad were removed from Fort Wayne to this city yesterday. It is believed that the change is for the purpose of placing the officers where they can oversee the work of extending the road eastward. John Jacob Astor, president of the road, will be here in a few days to make an inspection of the road and outline the plan of work on the extension which is to connect with eastern roads and thus make a new route across the state.

Dead Body Found in the River.

HIGGINSPORT, O., Nov. 17.—The remains of a well dressed man, apparently about 50 years of age, with full gray beard, were found in the Ohio river two miles below here by some fishermen, yesterday. An examination of the clothing revealed a watch and chain and a purse containing some small change. The remains were in a bad state of decomposition, and were immediately buried by the township trustees.

Had Nothing to Live For.

MASSILLON, O., Nov. 17.—Nathaniel S. Johnson, manager of the Central Union Telephone company, killed himself last night in his office by shooting himself in the mouth with a big revolver. His head was shattered. Johnson left a letter in which he said he was threatened with blindness and had nothing to live for.

An Arm Cut Off.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Nov. 17.—Frank Boyle disappeared Saturday night, and last night in attempting to jump from an Erie train at Meadville had his left arm cut off and was otherwise badly mangled. Boyle was placed in the hospital at Meadville, and a message sent here to his parents.

Fell Down a Shaft.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., Nov. 17.—Just before noon yesterday Cal Herron, a young man employed at the Kenilworth brickworks, near this city, fell down an open shaft 60 feet, receiving injuries which it is feared will prove fatal. His escape from instant death was miraculous.

Brakeman Under the Wheels.

BRADFORD, O., Nov. 17.—Brakeman Thomas Berry fell from a cut of cars in the yards here last night and the wheels passed over his left arm, mauling it so as to necessitate amputation. His knee cap was burst and he sustained other injuries that may result fatally.

One Hundred Miners Strike.

BELLAIRE, O., Nov. 17.—The 100 miners at the Glen Coal company's mines at Glencoe, O., 10 miles west of here, on the Baltimore and Ohio, went out on a strike yesterday because the company wanted to reduce wages on a certain kind of work in the mines.

Stocked With Fish.

RAVENNA, O., Nov. 17.—The United States fish car arrived here yesterday. Six large cans were filled with small mouthed bass and crappies and were placed in Brady, Crystal, Muddy and Sandy lakes. These fish will multiply very fast after next year.

Shot While at Play.

AKRON, O., Nov. 17.—While Corinne Stroble, an 11-year-old girl, was playing yesterday, one of her playmates found an old rifle, and in handling it, the gun was discharged,

The "National" Democrats of Ohio polled only 1,661 votes in a total of over 800,000. Their Kentucky sympathizers didn't do much better.

In October this year, our exports of merchandise amounted to $109,583,842, a loss of nearly $2,500,000 as compared with October, 1896. That Dingley tariff bill doesn't seem to be working just right.

Worse and worse it grows. The Treasury receipts Monday were $1,121,431.27; expenditures, $1,649,000; deficit for the day, $527,568.73; for the month, $5,763,320.99, and for the fiscal year to date, $48,772,331.35.

Those three Indiana bank failures last week look more like a plain case of robbery on the part of the officials of the concerns. It's such a plain case that the angry depositors threaten to lynch the President and Cashier.

A WASHINGTON dispatch says: "It is expected that the larger postoffices in Kentucky will be filled before Christmas." This is calculated to cause the Republican aspirants to get a fresh move on themselves at once. Some of them have been hustling for weeks.

That crowd of Republicans down in Louisville are having a hot old time now. The Toddites fired some of the anti-Todd crowd out of the party a few days ago, and each side is now making dire threats against the other. Now if the party would just fire the whole gang, it would unquestionably be better off.

LETS IN THE DEMOCRATS.

Wyoming Voters Must Be Able to Read the Constitution in English.

CHEYENNE, WYO., Nov. 15.—The Wyoming Supreme Court to-day rendered a decision in the Carbon County election case, sustaining the contention of the plaintiffs, who were the candidates for County Attorney, Treasurer and Commissioner on the Democratic ticket at the last election. The court decided that foreign-born citizens must be required to read the Constitution in the English language in order to vote. There were 115 Finns, who voted the Republican ticket, but could not read the Constitution in English. Their votes were accepted, as they could read it in their own language. The decision will put the Democratic candidates in office and settle a very important question.

Compulsory Marriage.

The Argentine Republic has passed a remarkable law to encourage marriage. It inflicts a fine upon any person of marriageable age who rejects a proposition. Here is the statute:

"People of marriageable age of either sex, who refuse an offer to wed without reasons which are considered valid in law, shall not be permitted to marry thereafter, without the permission of the government. They shall, moreover, pay an indemnity sum of not more than $200 to the person whose offer they have refused. Young men and women under twenty years are exempt from the law and can marry as they please. After they are 23 the men are obliged to pay a heavy tax if they remain single."

In Argentine women propose as well as men; so an unmarried young man between 20 and 23 years old in that country, has a troublesome time. Not only is he made to pay a tax for being a bachelor, but if he refuses a proposal he has to pay the proposer a fine.

GOEBEL'S BOOM.

Big Democratic Celebration in Covington Names Him For Governor.

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 15.—The Democrats of Kenton County celebrated their recent victory by a parade and mass-meeting in Covington Saturday night. Circuit Judge-elect James P. Tarvin and other successful candidates headed the procession in carriages and were vigorously cheered by hundreds of persons along the line of march.

The affair was a big success considering the short time allowed the various clubs to arrange for the parade.

The most conspicuous feature of the parade was the numerous transparencies declaring for Senator William Goebel for the next Democratic nomination for Governor.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever-sores, letter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by J. J. Wood.

HARRISON COUNTY PIKES.

A Levy of 25 Cents On the $100 Made to Maintain Them—Bond Issue Failed to Carry.

[Cynthiana Democrat.]

The Harrison Fiscal Court was in session Saturday and fixed the tax levy: poll tax, $1.50; infirmity, 3 cents; ordinary expenses, 12 cents; turnpikes, 25 cents.

The bond issue having failed to carry, Judge Lall was instructed to borrow $8,000 to maintain the pikes. The county will have to pay 6 per cent. whereas had the bonds carried, they could have been disposed of at 4 cents.

Monday John W. Musselman was elected Turnpike Commissioner at a monthly salary of $90. His duties will be to superintend the repairing of the pikes, and receive and award contracts for same.

The work will be let out in sections of not less than three nor more than five miles. His term of office begins next Wednesday and expires in January, 1898.

The court met again Tuesday, and allowed County Attorney Evans, $1,200 for extra service rendered in the turnpike cases.

"A Baggage Check."

An engagement of more than ordinary interest will be the appearance at Washington Opera House on Monday, November 22nd, of Chas. E. Blaney's popular and most successful comedy "A Baggage Check" which has been re-written and made funnier than ever before, if such a thing is possible to do, as the play from its first production has been conceded by both press and public to be one of the funniest farce comedies ever written. The company this season is said to be an entirely new one, not one of the old members having been retained, and is also said to be by far the best that has ever appeared in this popular play. It is headed by a clever young comedian, Clyde Stanley, who has been specially engaged for the principal comedy part. Pretty girls, handsome costumes, clever specialties, special scenery and new music are special features of this popular play.

CIRCUIT COURT.

List of the Petit Jurors—Gaines Royce Acquitted—Riggs Case Continued. Other Matters.

In the Circuit Court Tuesday the Sheriff returned the following list of regular jurors: Thomas Malone, James Asbury, Martin Comer, Thomas E. Downing, Charles K. Hill, John V. Day, Robt. Yancey, B. P. McClanahan, Wm. R. Key, Wm. A. Marsh, Wm. Parker, W. H. Harrison, S. M. Worthington, Wm. Foley, Thomas H. Stevens, Ben Huff, John Durvea, Alfred Worick, Cornelius Coryell, W. H. Meenach, J. E. Molloy, A. W. Terry, Martin Fay and Thomas Tuggle.

The indictment against J. W. Case was filed away.

The case against Martin Devon, indicted for housebreaking, was also continued.

The indictment against S. T. McClung for forgery was filed away with leave to redocket. McClung is the Portsmouth doctor who passed a forged check on the Bank of Maysville a year ago.

French Poultry Schools.

England imports eggs and poultry to the value of $23,000,000, while France exports $70,000,000 of the same. France has a number of poultry schools, where pupils are regularly trained in rearing fowls, managing incubators, curing diseases, etc., 30,000 chickens being hatched each season at the Gambais school. The pupils pay for their instruction and work from 6 a. m. to 8 p. m., three of the hours being devoted to study. Scholarships are founded for the benefit of those unable to afford the tuition fee.

Homeseeker's Excursions.

On November 19th and December 7th and 21st, the C. and O. will sell round trip tickets from Maysville to certain points in Arizona, Arkansas, Colorado, Idaho, Indian Territory, Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Texas, Utah, Wisconsin and Wyoming at one fare plus $2. Limit of ticket twenty-one days. For further information see C. and O. agent.

Guards Wanted.

Colonel W. W. Baldwin of the Maysville and Lexington Turnpike Company applied to Judge Hutchins Tuesday for twenty-five guards to protect the toll-gates on the pike, but was refused.

He has received several letters the past week threatening his life if he does not remove the gates.

STATE TREASURER LONG said Tuesday he would issue a call for $200,000 of old warrants December 5. He has paid $195,000 already from the 10 per cent. fund.

PROF. C. M. ALBERTI, of Lexington, who was stricken with mental aberration Friday, is in a dangerous condition. His mind appears permanently impaired. He was one of Lexington's best known educators.

NEAR Maysfield W. and T. B. Stubblefield have sold their crop of tobacco, consisting of 60,000 pounds, to J. H. Boswell for 10 cents per pound. This is the biggest sale of loose tobacco ever made in that county.

BALLENGER, the jeweler, never misrepresents his goods. When you buy anything of him, you can always rest assured of getting your money's worth. That's the place to deal. His stock is the most complete in Maysville.

J. H. ROGERS & Co. are now bottling the Limestone whisky under Government supervision. Each bottle is sealed with Government stamp, guaranteeing age and purity. Those wishing a pure article for medicinal or other purposes should call for it.

How long have you been coughing—a day, a week, a month, a year? Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey will cure that cough. There can be no doubt of it, because it has cured many others equally severe. Every one should investigate the merits of this great remedy. For sale at Chenoweth's drug store.

THE State, through Attorney General Taylor, Tuesday filed a second suit against County Clerk Wes B. Wilson, of Covington. Another $4,000 is asked for on the same grounds as in the former suit, that Wilson lacked that amount in one year of paying his deputies as much as the court allowed them and as he claims to have paid them.

IN Lawrence County at the recent election a total vote of 3,973 was cast, and in the race for County Clerk and Jailor the Canvassing Board decided that the Republican candidates were elected by one vote. It was thought the result was a tie, but the Canvassing Board ruled out a Democratic ballot on a technicality, leaving the Republican candidate one vote ahead.

LAST year the total shipment of turkeys from Kentucky amounted to 2,000,000 pounds of dressed goods, bringing to the raisers $175,000. The cost of the labor in preparing this amount was about $10,000. The crop this year is thought to be about 30 per cent. short. The price has advanced about 1 cent per pound over last year's, owing to the shortage in the crop. Thanksgiving tonnage last year was 860,000 pounds, and will doubtless be about the same this year.

TAKING effect December 1st, the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Company will discontinue the practice of extending the return portion of local round trip excursion tickets sold between stations along the Ohio river and to Cincinnati. The return portion of these tickets, however, will be redeemed should passengers fail for any reason to use them, at the difference between regular one way rate, and the rate at which the round trip ticket was sold.

Friday's Cash Sale!

Sheets and Pillow Cases.

Two ways of getting Sheets and Pillow Cases. First way: Buy the cloth, tear it into lengths, stretch it even, turn the hems, sew them, then wash, iron and air the sheets. Second way: Come here and buy these Sheets and Pillow Cases, all made by experts; washed, ironed and ready for the guest chamber or your own. Which of these two ways is best? The price is the same in both cases, only in the first place you save nothing by your drudgery.

Common Sense People

long ago found out the convenience and time-saving in made Sheets and Pillow Cases. No worry, no sewing, no trouble, and you have ready-to-use Sheets and Cases for the same money the muslin would have cost. Sheeting manufacturers charge nothing for the making of these goods now-a-days, because they have to do it in order to sell the sheeting. It's just like our tying up packages. Sheets, heavy Utica muslin, ten-quarter, liberal hems, unbleached, 39c.; bleached, 49c. Pillow Cases, Utica and Pepperil muslin, 36x 44, broad hems, neatly finished, 10c.

SEE THE GAME TO-DAY.

The Maysvilles and Portsmouths Will Tackle Each Other This Afternoon.

What a glorious ideal foot ball day! Just the kind to inspire the players to do some grand playing and the crowd to enjoy the game.

The Portsmouth team arrived at 8:50 and are a gentlemanly appearing set of foot ball players. Maysville is ready for them and if you want to witness a battle royal on the gridiron, go out to the ball park at 3 o'clock this afternoon and you will be gratified. Everybody go and everybody root for the home team, and the boys will do their best to take this game. Learn the yell and help give it at the game:

Boom-a-laca, boom-a-laca
 Boom, boom, haw!
 Maysville, Maysville!
 Rah, rah, rah!

Just notice the line-up:

ON TWO ACRES.

A Family in Belgium Can Live on That Much Ground.

[Exchange.]

What many an American farmer fails to do on 100 acres, the thrifty Hollander and Belgian easily does on two acres, namely, support a large family and lay by something for a rainy day.

He does it by making the most of every inch, by heavy manuring and allowing no waste places. His two acres are surrounded by a ditch of running water. The typical two acre Belgium farm contains a patch of wheat or rye and another of barley; another fair portion grows potatoes. A row of cabbage grows all around on the sloping sides of the ditches with a row of onions just inside, leaving bare walking room between them and the grain. The shade trees round the house are pear trees.

Every foot of land is made to produce. He keeps pigs and chickens. We refer to this as illustrating the possibilities of land production. In Belgium 6,000,000 people, chiefly farmers, live on a piece of land the size of the State of Maryland.

Y. M. C. A.

The subject "New Creatures" was ably handled by Mr. C. R. Boucher, of Covington, with the aid of the stereopticon to illustrate his thoughts, at the special men's service last evening. Several Biblical scenes taken from the life of Christ mostly were used to set forth the idea which the speaker had in mind. Every one was benefitted and instructed and more should have been there to have heard Mr. Boucher. The songs used were thrown upon the canvas, which proved to be a decidedly successful way of getting the men to sing.

Rev. Rapp, of Mitchell's Chapel, will speak to-night at 8 o'clock. His subject will be, "Sowing and Reaping." Rev. Rapp is a very pleasing speaker, and you would do well to hear him to-night. All are cordially invited.

PRAYER meeting at the Central Presbyterian Church this evening at 7 o'clock. Young men especially invited to attend.

JURY GIVES BOY A PURSE,

After He Confesses Theft, and Tell Him To Sin No More.

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 16.—The grand jury of Campbell County did a queer thing at Newport to-day. The case of Charles W. Shotwell, aged seventeen, was heard for housebreaking. The boy had been in jail three months. He was in rage and almost barefooted when brought before the grand jury. He said his parents died years ago, and he was without home or friends.

Driven to desperation, he had joined an older person in attempting to break into a house. The other party escaped. Shotwell concealed nothing, and his story was corroborated. The jury returned no indictment, but made up a purse for him and also procured new clothing, and started the lad out when he promised to lead a better life.

A Costly Lick.

Says the Cynthiana Democrat: "The lick Louis Perrant gave young Lang in a quarrel a few weeks ago has cost Perrant about $700. Lang sned for damages, but an agreement was reached by which Perrant paid $450, the costs of the suits, $25 fine for assault and battery, Lange's doctor bills, nurse hire, and wages while unable to work. A bill like that is calculated to make a fellow stop and count 100 before he makes another pass."

WHERE'S THE OWNER?

A Runaway Horse and Buggy Caught on the Mt. Carmel Pike Sunday Night. Driver Still Missing.

Mr. Robinson Bradford and son, living three and a half miles from Maysville on the Mt. Carmel pike, caught a runaway horse between 9 and 10 o'clock Sunday night near their home.

The animal was hitched to an empty buggy, and was coming towards Maysville at a rapid gate. The buggy is a new one, but the top had been torn off by the branches of trees under which the horse had passed.

The horse is a bright bay, about fifteen hands high and six years old. The harness is good.

The runaway was captured Sunday night, as already stated, but up to Tuesday afternoon no owner had put in his appearance. A quarter of a mile beyond Mr. Bradford's, a ladies' hat was found on the pike Monday morning.

Parties in the neighborhood fear that the occupants of the vehicle have met with foul play, and an investigation is being made.

CUBA.

An appreciative audience listened last evening to Dr. C. N. Thomas' lecture on Cuba at the court house. Dr. Thomas recently spent two months on the island and made a careful study of the situation. Among other things he said the present war in Cuba is a continuation of the late ten years war. Both sides are determined to win. The life of the Spanish nation depends on her crushing the rebellion. The Cubans are determined not to lay down their arms until they are a free people. The war from present indications has only commenced and will continue for years to come unless our Government interferes.

He then spoke about the grievances that Cubans have against their mother country, Spain. Also about the people who live on the island and the awful suffering there, which will continue to grow worse the longer the war lasts.

In his concluding remarks he said the island of Cuba is a magnificent garden and in time would be a paradise on earth. No one who has ever been on the island can realize the wonderful fertility of the soil and the unlimited resources that Cuba possesses.

River News.

Four boats are coming from Pomeroy with tons of coal and salt.

There are 15,000,000 bushels of coal ready at Pittsburgh for shipment on the first water.

The Keystone State is due down this evening and will return for Pittsburgh tomorrow night.

The hole ripped in the hull of the Sherley was thirty-five feet long and four feet wide. They expected to begin pumping her out last night.

The river was rising at most all points above here Tuesday. The marks showed over six feet at Pittsburgh, and river men expected to see a big coal shipment before the week is out.

We Knew We Had a Good Thing

In the stock of fine Clothing we recently bought by electric light. There is so much clap-trap Clothing advertising in vogue at present that we refrained from saying too much about this purchase. We simply called your attention to it and said look in our window display, see the goods and note the CASH price on them. We knew we would sell some of them; the continued warm weather left a doubt as to selling a great many now. The doubt is dispelled. Since the day we opened this purchase and made our window display our store has been crowded with customers anxious to secure these unheard-of bargains.

We advise our friends who contemplate buying a Fall or Winter Suit and Overcoat not to let this opportunity slip. It is only one in a long time where circumstances arise that enable merchants to secure

SIDWELL-SHEELER.

One of the County's Worthy Young Farmers Wedded at 11 O'clock This Morning.

The marriage of Mr. Calvin Holton Sidwell and Miss Ettie S. Sheeler was solemnized at 11 o'clock this morning at the home of the bride near Tuckahoe, Rev. W. W. Hall officiating.

The groom is a brother of Mrs. John L. Chamberlain, of this city, and one of the county's industrious and successful young farmers. The bride is a daughter of Mr. Jacob Sheeler and is a pretty and estimable young lady.

The couple leave on the F. F. V. at 1:30 this afternoon to spend several days at Huntington, W. Va.

NOTICES have been posted on many toll gates in Robertson County warning the County Judge, turnpike presidents and gate-keepers to remove the gates and "save trouble." About half the gates were raided some time ago.

Something to Know.

It may be worth something to know that the very best medicine for restoring the tired out nervous system to a healthy vigor is Electric Bitters. This medicine is purely vegetable, acts by giving tone to the nerve centres in the stomach, gently stimulates the liver, and kidneys, and aids these organs in throwing off impurities in the blood. Electric Bitters improves the appetite, aids digestion, and is pronounced by those who have tried it as the very best blood purifier and nerve tonic. Try it. Sold for 50c. or $1.00 per bottle at J. A New Literature.
The new cycle on which the literature of poetry, fiction and the drama has entered is a marked feature of the present day spirit. The brave and brilliant old romantic school whose last exponent died when Victor Hugo laid down his pen was succeeded by the realistic school, which finds its most marked example in Zola. This so called realism had the peculiarity that it dealt only with the bad side of reality, never the good. The result was a materialism, a horrible pessimism, which for a time threatened among intelligent people to swamp even belief in the immortality of the soul.

The reaction has come. It began 50 years ago in a small, humble way. In the souls of the common people, not always consciously even to themselves, it took the form of a protest against the formality and materialism which had engulfed science and every phase of human thought. While science proclaimed that thought was a secretion of the brain the protest grew louder and louder. This protest, starting among the lowly, has at length the beginning of a literature, and a noble one, of its own. Its representative in Russia is Tolstoi, in Norway Ibsen. It has two or three prominent writers among the leaders of young France; in the Netherlands Maurice Maeterlinck, novelist and dramatist. In England Marie Corelli, in her peculiar way, stands out as the prophet of the new literature. In America we have as yet no leader, though for half a century we had one who was the noblest of them all, Emerson. He was greater than his own countrymen have ever realized.

The literature which will come upon the stage with the twentieth century recognizes first of all the soul of man. It appeals directly to this. The body of the man is merely the expression of this soul, which is the man himself. The awakening and the development of man's intellectual consciousness to the point where he can commune with his own soul and through it with what Emerson called the oversoul, the infinite, all pervading spirit of the universe—this is the doctrine of the new literature. It is joined to a spiritual mysticism which embraces both the mysticism of the early Christians and of the oriental philosophy. For the attainment of its ends it inculcates a lofty purity of life, a keeping down and control of the body and a noble altruism which must perforce make the golden rule its conduct of life. At any rate this is an improvement on the yellow literature.

As to the Price of a Dog.
There was a dog show in a southern town several years ago, and a New York man carried a lot of setters and pointers down to compete. The dogs were the best on exhibition, and the New Yorker provided a pedigree for each of them as long as his arm. He knew how to handle them, and they took most of the prizes.

Two of the local sportsmen took a fancy to one of the dogs, and in the end paid a large price for it—about $500, it was thought by their friends—but they would never tell what the sum was. The pointer was sent from place to place in the hope that it would take prizes, as the New Yorker had represented it to be one of the finest animals in the country, but it never came in for so much as "highly commended." Within a few months it died without leaving so much as a puppy to mourn at its grave in the turnip patch.

Nobody could find out what had been paid for the dog. Some months afterward one of the purchasers was at Niagara with a friend who had been waiting for a chance to get the information. Each had taken many cocktails, and finding the roar of the river a burden they wandered away from it and sat down on a log. The friend thought his time had come. He put his arm affectionately on the other's shoulder and steadied him.

"Say, Frank, old man," he said, "what did you and Eustace give for that dog anyhow?"

The other rose to his feet with determination.

"Well, John," he said, "I may be full, but I'm hanged if I'm drunk enough to tell you that."

Playing Slot Machines Not Gambling.
INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 17.—Slot machines are in use again. The police court, in a test case yesterday, decided the use of these machines not gambling and returned the outfits seized as contraband.

Held Up and Robbed.
YOUNGSTOWN, O., Nov. 17.—John Ring, a young man, while going home early yesterday morning, was held up by a footpad with a revolver and relieved of $23.75.

Miss Eula Vickroy tripped and fell down stairs at her home on East Second street Tuesday afternoon, but escaped without serious injury.

FACES HIS CREDITORS.
An Offer Made to the Depositors of Three Failed Banks.

CORYDON, Ind., Nov. 17.—John H. Weathers, president of the failed banks at Leavenworth, Marengo and English, Ind., who has been in hiding in Louisville and New Albany, Ind., waiting for the excitement caused by the bank failures to die out, returned to Corydon yesterday and made a statement to the failures to the committees of depositors who held a meeting here to devise means for a settlement.

Mr. Weathers' statement is to this effect: That while at Corydon recently attending his law practice he received a telephone message from Leavenworth to come there at once as there was something wrong with the bank. He immediately left Corydon and went to Leavenworth, where he and Nolan Barnett, the cashier of the Leavenworth bank, examined the institution's books and found that the funds of the same were at a low ebb. It was decided by them to close the three banks at once. President Weathers was advised by friends to leave the town until the sensation abated, which he did. He, however, thought he might yet bridge over matters and took some collateral with him, but after deliberation he decided it would be better to return the same and have an assignee appointed. He thereupon made a general assignment with E. C. Arnold of Leavenworth as assignee.

Mr. Weathers said further that all he wanted was a reasonable support for his wife and child while the settlement was in progress, and that he would spend one year without compensation to facilitate matters to the end that dollar for dollar be paid.

Mr. Weathers stands very high in his own and adjoining counties and has a large law practice. Not a single man of the different committees had a word of censure for Mr. Weathers after he made his statement to them. Mr. Weathers stated to the committees that his wife would make an assignment of all her present property, which is considerable, and that even his splendid home at English would be included. The committees accepted the president's statement as true and elected Mr. Arnold as his assignee without a dissenting vote.

Mrs. Willett, wife of the missing cashier, is almost prostrated with grief, but is not dying as has been reported.

The people of the various communities in which the banks are situated are very much relieved and express confidence in Mr. Weathers' ability to settle up matters in a satisfactory manner. The consensus of opinion is that Mr. Weathers was the victim of Cashier Willett and is himself innocent of any wrong doing. Nothing has been heard from Willett since last Wednesday morning.

Telegraphic advices from English, Ind., are to the effect that Willett's kinsfolk are willing to unite with his grandmother to donate sufficient funds to cover his shortage provided he proves himself not guilty of any intentional wrongdoing and will return. His grandmother will donate $50,000 and other relatives have pledged themselves for $75,000 additional. Cashier Rothrock of the Huntington bank, it is said, has pledged himself to stand by both Weathers and Willett.

MINERS BECOMING DESPERATE.
No Prospects of a Settlement of a Strike Lasting Since Last May.

WASHINGTON, Ind., Nov. 17.—The strike of the Cabel and Knuffman miners which has been on since last May is farther from settlement than ever. Labor Commissioners Schmidt and McCormick have been in this city for a week trying to adjust the differences, but without success. They have given up the task as hopeless. A proposition submitted by the miners to the operators last evening was rejected.

The operators have imported a number of negroes from Kentucky, who are now operating the mines, and it is not improbable that bloodshed will be the result in the near future. The miners have issued a circular which they are now distributing, asking every citizen to boycott the stores of Cabel and Knuffman.

As time passes matters are growing more serious. Miners with no food, fuel or clothing, seeing their places in the mines filled by non-residents, and they colored, are on the verge of desperation.

Wounded Man Kills Himself.
CINCINNATI, Nov. 17.—Lindsay Neighbert, who shot Mrs. John Henry of Clifton, wounding her severely in an attempt to murder her on Nov. 3, and who himself was shot either by his pursuers or by himself, jumped from the window of the hospital yesterday and was killed by the fall.

Personating a Railway Conductor.
WARSAW, Ind., Nov. 17.—A stranger registering as Thomas Reed, and claiming to be a conductor on the Big Four railway, secured a horse and buggy from Edward Collins and disappeared. It is alleged that the same man played the same game at Peru.

Kirby's Ill Luck.

LAST HOURS DRAWING NIGH.
Great Effort Being Made to Save a Murderer's Neck.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 17.—Unless Governor Stephens interposes Tom Johnson, alias "Henry Clay," the negro murderer, will be hanged at 6 o'clock Thursday morning on the old scaffold in the jail yard. Every effort has been made by the condemned man's attorney to secure a respite of 30 days. Johnson is regarded as weakminded. The attorney has secured a number of signatures to a petition to Governor Stephens, among them being that of Judge Withrow, who sentenced Johnson.

During a quarrel in July, 1896, Johnson killed William Amend, a newsboy. Johnson has written to his aunt in Georgia asking that she send for his body and bury it in the south. She is his only relative. He does not seem to realize his position, but laughs when his approaching execution is mentioned.

Household Gods.
The ancient Greeks believed that the Penates were the gods who attended to the welfare and prosperity of the family. They were worshipped as household gods in every home. The household god of today is Dr. King's New Discovery. For consumption, coughs, colds and for all affections of throat, chest and lungs it is invaluable. It has been tried for a quarter of a century and is guaranteed to cure, or money returned. No household should be without this good angel. It is pleasant to take and a safe and sure remedy for old and young. Free trial bottles at J. J. Wood's drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00.

Loose clothes and downy cushions bring only a negative sort of comfort to the woman who is suffering with some disease or derangement of the organs distinctly feminine. Some clothes and some positions make pain and the discomfort seem less. Perhaps the nerves are most affected and this in turn disturbs the digestion. Nothing will ever completely relieve but a radical cure. The start of so-called "female complaints" may be a very slight thing indeed. It may be that in the beginning some small hygienic measures would stop the trouble. Certainly at this time, a little bit of the right medicine would stop it. When the trouble becomes worse, it is harder to cure, but still it can be cured. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will positively cure any trouble of this character. It may be absolutely relied upon. It affords lasting relief to a woman whose natural modesty has kept her from consulting a physician.
Send 21 cents in one-cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y. and receive Dr. Pierce's 1008 page "Common Sense Medical Adviser," profusely illustrated.
